

International Workshop for Junior Historians: Crises in Early Modern Times: Scenarios – Experiences – Management – Coping provisional Program

Thursday, 2.10.2014

9.00-9.30	Welcome and Introduction
9.30-10.50	Religion as Trouble Spot and Origin of Crises I
10.50-11.10	Break
11.10-12.30	Religion as Trouble Spot and Origin of Crises II
12.30-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-15.20	Crises in Diplomatic Relations: Management and Prevention I
15.20-15.40	Break
15.40-17.00	Crises in Diplomatic Relations: Management and Prevention II
17.00-17.30	Break
17.30-18.50	Social Dimensions of Crises
afterwards	walk to the Festung
ca. 20.00	Dinner at „Freiraum“

Friday, 3.10.2014

9.00-10.20	Crises in Administration, Administration as Part of Crises Management
10.20-10.40	Break
10.40-12.45	Crises mirrored in Political Communication
13.15-ca. 17.00	Obersalzberg
ca. 18.00	Dinner at Müllner Bräu

Saturday, 4.10.2014

9.00-10.20	Economic Crises and Economic Effects of Political Crises
10.20-10.40	Break
10.40-12.45	Consequences of Crises: Culture, Perception, Values Closing Remarks

Thursday, 2.10.2014

- 9.00-9.30 Welcome and Introduction: Arno Strohmeyer/Lena Oetzel
- 9.30-10.50 Religion as Trouble Spot and Origin of Crises I
Chair: Lena Oetzel
- Veronika Chmelařová (University of Olomouc, Czechia), Crisis of Coexistence. Practice of Everyday Life in Biconfessional City of Teschen (Silesia)
 - Regine Puchinger (University of Vienna, Austria), Confraternities – tools of confessionalisation, the way to salvation and convincing lenders
- 10.50-11.10 Break
- 11.10-12.30 Religion as Trouble Spot and Origin of Crises II
Chair: István Fazekas
- Gergely Magyar (ELTE Budapest, Hungary), Renovatio versus innovatio: the 17th century crisis of the Hungarian Reformed clergy
 - Ibolya Fazekas (Pázmány University, Piliscsaba, Hungary), Interessenkonflikte in der postjosephinischen Kirchenpolitik
- 12.30-14.00 Lunch Break
- 14.00-15.20 Crises in Diplomatic Relations: Management and Prevention I
Chair: Arno Strohmeyer
- Julia Kellner (University of Salzburg, Austria): Crisis scenarios in diplomatic communication – the grand embassy of count Hermann Czernin to Constantinople (1644/45)
 - Anna Huemer (University of Salzburg, Austria): Conflict management at the Sublime Porte: Gifts and gift-giving as political tool in intercultural Diplomacy. A case study of selected Habsburg grand embassies (17th Century)
- 15.20-15.40 Break
- 15.40-17.00 Crises in Diplomatic Relations: Management and Prevention II
Chair: Csaba Szabó
- János Szabados (University of Szeged, Hungary), Krisensituation und Krisenmanagement: die Tätigkeit des kaiserlichen Residenten in Konstantinopel Michael Talman zur Zeit des ungarischen Aufstandes gegen Habsburg am Anfang des 18. Jahrhunderts
 - Christoph Würflinger (University of Salzburg, Austria): Aiming for Parity. Symbolic Diplomacy as a Measure of Crisis Prevention in Ottoman-Habsburg Relations
- 17.00-17.30 Break

- 17.30-18.50 Social Dimensions of Crises
Chair: Martin Scheutz
- Sarah Pichlkastner (University of Vienna, Austria), A hospital in crisis. Coping strategies of the Vienna Public hospital in the Early Modern Period
 - Markus Gneiß (University of Vienna, Austria), Craftsmen and their role in social and political unrests in late medieval and early modern Vienna

Friday, 3.10.2014

- 9.00-10.20 Crises in Administration, Administration as Part of Crises Management
Chair: Thomas Winkelbauer
- Josef Löffler (University of Vienna, Austria), Theresian-Josephinian Reforms and manorial administration
 - Ondřej Hudeček (Charles University, Prague, Czechia), The formation of systematic flood risk management in 18th century Bohemia and the oldest preserved flood instruction for Prague
- 10.20-10.40 Break
- 10.40-12.45 Crises mirrored in Political Communication
Chair: Arno Strohmeyer
- Doris Gruber (University of Graz, Austria), Prodigien in mediengeschichtlicher Perspektive
 - Fanni Hende (Pázmány University, Piliscsaba, Hungary), Konfliktbewältigung in der politischen Kommunikation. Die Landtagssitzung nach dem Abschluss des Rákóczi-Aufstandes
 - Henrik Hönich (ELTE Budapest, Hungary), Sprache und Krise. Konstruktionen über den Verfall des Nationalcharakters in den Streitschriften vom Ende des 18. Jahrhunderts im Königreich Ungarn
- 13.15-ca. 17.00 Visit of the “Dokumentation Obersalzberg”

Saturday, 4.10.2014

- 9.00-10.20 Economic Crises and Economic Effects of Political Crises
Chair: Martin Scheutz
- Patrick Swoboda (University of Vienna, Austria), Subsidies as sign of crisis. The Habsburg monarchy in the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars 1792-1815
 - Vanja Kočevar (University of Ljubljana, Slovenia), Die Kipper- und Wipperzeit im Herzogtum Krain
- 10.20-10.40 Break

10.40-12.45

Consequences of Crises: Culture, Perception, Values

Chair: Thomas Winkelbauer

- Julia Możdżeń (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Toruń, Poland), Grundwerte und Tugenden im Dienst der Krisenbewältigung in der Stadt aus der Sicht Danziger Historiographen an der Wende vom 15. zum 16. Jahrhunderts
- Sandra Pfistermüller (University of Salzburg, Austria): Producing knowledge in time of metamorphosis: the complex endeavor of Zedler to capture the changing image of the Ottomans
- Stefaniia Kovbasiuk (University of Kiev, Ukraine): The Reform and the Popular culture: political and religious crises as determinants of the changes in the Popular culture of the Early modern Netherlands

Closing Remarks