

CENTRAL EUROPE IN THE EARLY MODERN ERA: POLITICS, ECONOMY, SOCIETY, CULTURE

M Muzeum
města Brna
MΣ

BRIDGING EARLY MODERN HISTORY
CEW
CENTRAL EUROPEAN
WORKSHOPS

MUNI Department
ARTS of History

Central European Workshops - Bridging Early Modern History (CEW)
Brno 2024

PROGRAMME

20. June 2024

(9:00–9:30)

Introduction

I. Early Modern Period: Concept and Periodisation

Moderation: Sašo Jerše

(9:30-10:00)

Robin Dolar (Univerza v Ljubljani, Ljubljana, Slovenija)

The Concept of Late Premodernity

(10:00-10:30)

Judith Zimmermann (Universität Salzburg, Salzburg, Österreich)

Digital History in German and Austrian Universities from 2000–2021

II. City: Society and Representation

Moderation: Martin Scheutz

(10:30-11:00)

Jakub Kříž (Masarykova univerzita, Brno, Česká republika)

Town halls at the turn of the 15th and 16th century in the Czech lands - the „stage“ of urban representation, the place of administration of justice, the centre of urban everyday life.

(11:00–11:30)

Neža Lukančič (Univerza v Ljubljani, Ljubljana, Slovenija)

Hereditary Homage to Emperor Charles VI in 1728. Representation of Habsbourg Power and the Development of Urban Spaces

(11:30–13:00)

Lunch break

III. Diplomacy: War and Peace

Moderation: István Fazekas, Peter Fedorčák

(13:00–13:30)

Jozef Mário Matiaško (Masarykova univerzita, Brno, Česká republika/Slovenská republika)

Potential ally against the Ottoman Empire? The historical context of the specific image of Muscovy at the beginning of the 16th century.

(13:30–14:00)

Zoltán Ujj (ELTE, Budapest, Magyarország)

The School of War. Archduke Maximilian's Temporary Administration and the Defense of the Habsburg Monarchy in 1552

(14:00–14:30)

Viktor Róbert Sinka (ELTE, Budapest, Magyarország)

The difficulties caused by the replacement of a permanent Habsburg ambassador in Constantinople following the death of Friedrich Breuner in the mid-1580s

(14:30–15:00)

Maria-Antoaneta Vangelova (Софийски университет Св. Климент Охридски, София, България)

The Danubian Principalities in the relations between the Habsburg and the Russian Empires throughout the 18th century: Ideas, Religion and Culture

(15:30–18:00)

Sightseeing

21. June 2024

IV. Administration: The Elites and Masses

Moderation: Thomas Winkelbauer, (Marek Ferenc)

(9:00–9:30)

Mihály Pokorni (Szegedi Tudományegyetem, Szeged, Magyarország)

Ottoman Legal Practices in Debrecen: Insights from Archival Documents (16th-17th Century)

(9:30–10:00)

Agata Kwiatek (Uniwersytet Jagielloński, Kraków, Polska)

New perspectives in research on provincial elites in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth in the 17th century.

(10:00–10:30)

Tamás Pintér (Pécsi Tudományegyetem Pécs, Magyarország)

The disadvantages and problems of mid-level public administration research in 18th-19th century Hungary

(10:30–11:00)

Coffee break

V. Economics: Markets and Investments

Moderation: Sándor Papp

(11:00–11:30)

Patryk Kuc (Uniwersytet Jagielloński, Kraków, Polska)

Functioning of local economic markets in the 16th century on the example of Sandomierz Voivodeship

(11:30–12:00)

Max Klimesch (Wiener Universität, Österreich)

Economic and Social History of the Baroque Parish churches in Mostviertel (Lower Austria).

(12:00–13:30)

Lunch break

VI. Church: Church, Monastery, Hospital

Moderation: Arno Strohmeier, Maria Baramova

(13:30–14:00)

Elisabeth Tangerner (Universität Salzburg, Österreich)

Senses in Sacred Space: Reflections on (Sensual) Perception in Space in Medieval Monasteries using the example of Lambach Abbey (Upper Austria)

(14:00–14:30)

Sylvia Stegbauer (Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften/Universität Wien, Österreich)

Splendour and function in transition: an investigation of the former Jesuit College in Graz

(14:30–15:00)

Julia Maria Bumberger (Wiener Universität, Österreich)

The Vienna St. Elisabeth monastery. Recruitment and social composition of the nuns from 1709 to 1914

(15:00–15:30)

Felix Kaufmann (Wiener Universität, Österreich)

The first women's hospital in Vienna and its patients between 1710 and 1746

(15:30–16:00)

Coffee break

VII. Anthropology: Life and Death

Moderation: András Forgó

(16:00–16:30)

Erika Öner (Szegedi Tudományegyetem, Szeged, Magyarország)

The matter of life and death during Hungary's Turkish subjugation

(16:30–17:00)

General Discussion

(17:00)

Closing ceremony

22. June 2024

(9:00–12:30)

Excursion

